

Review Report:

The requirements are tabularly listed and are formatted and categorized, based on the risk/priority of the requirement. The most important requirements are the cart, delivery, payment, shipping information, website functionality and login/register. Without these requirements, the website would be unusable.